4. Cargo at port is at merchant risk, expenses and responsibility
5. FCL
77. THC at destination payable by Merchant as per line/port tariff
153. All expenses, including but not limited to overtime/drayage to stacking area if any, from ship's hold up to reloading of empties in ship's hold/deck are for Receiver's account.
180. Carrier draws Merchant s attention to the fact that as per Algerian national customs regulation n 79-07 and 98-10, cargo shall be auctioned by customs without any notice if Merchant fails to take delivery within 2 months and 21 days from the date of discharge.
194. For the purpose of the present carriage, clause 14(2) shall exclude the application of the York/Antwerp rules, 2004.
216. Mis-declaration of cargo weight endangers crew, port workers and vessels' safely. Your cargo may be weighed at any place and time of carriage and any mis-declaration wil expose you to claims for all losses, expenses or damages whatsoever resulting thereof and be subject to freight surcharge.
225. The shipper acknowledges that the Carrier may carry the goods identified in this bill of lading on the deck of any vessel and in taking remittance of this bill of lading the Merchant (including the shipper, the consignee and the holder of the bill of lading, as the case may be) confirms his express acceptance of all the terms and conditions of this bill of lading and expressly confirms his unconditional and irrevocable consent to the possible carriage of the goods on the deck of any vessel.
241. Carrier is not responsible for any omission in regards to article 69 of applicable Algerian budget bill 2009 (published on Algerian bulletin n° 44) and the responsibility remains with the merchant/importer. Any fines, penalties levied against the carrier for non compliance with the above article and/or additional costs, including but not limited to storage, demurrage are for the account of the merchant.
249. As per National Algerian Customs Regulations, a full style name and address has to be indicated in the consignee and/or notify party field of the bill of lading. Failing to provide this information will be subject to a penalty fixed by Customs and borne by the receiver.
251 Demurrage payable by merchant from date of discharge for dry containers. First 15 days are free. From the 16th to the 40th day USD 26 per day per 20 ft and USD 52 per day per 40 ft. From the 41st day to the 60th day USD 48 per day per 20 ft and USD 96 per day per 40 ft. From the 61st day USD 62 per

RECEIVED by the carrier from the shipper in apparent good order and condition (unless otherwise noted herein) the total number or quantity of Containers or other packages or units indicated above stated by the shipper to comprise the cargo specified above for transportation subject to all the terms hereof (including the terms on page one) from the place of receipt or the port of loading, whichever is applicable, to the port of discharge or the place of delivery, whichever is applicable. Delivery of the Goods will only be made on payment of all Freight and charges. On presentation of this document (duly endorsed) to the Carrier, by or on behalf of the holder, the rights and liabilities arising in accordance with the terms hereof shall (without prejudice to any rule of common law or statutes rendering them binding upon the shipper, holder and carrier) become binding in all respects between the Carrier and Holder as though the contract contained herein or evidenced hereby had been made between them.
All claims and actions arising between the Carrier and the Merchant in relation with the contract of Carriage evidenced by this Bill of Lading shall exclusively be brought before the Tribunal de Commerce de Marseille and no other Court shall have jurisdiction with regards to any such claim or action. Notwithstanding the above, the Carrier is also entitled to bring the claim or action before the Court of the place where the defendant has his registered office.
In witness whereof three (3) original Bills of Lading, unless otherwise stated above, have been issued, one of which being accomplished, the others to be void.
